

Project D Prework - Intentionally Misleading Storytelling with Data

- A. What does social media offer?
- B. How does increased social media engagement influence real-world interactions and personal well-being?
- C. In what ways might social media usage contribute to one's mental health and resilience?
- D. How might social media engagement lead to different socioeconomic outcomes?
- E. Is it possible that social media acts as a catalyst for personal growth and proactive behavior?
- F. What role do social media platforms play in shaping education and skill development?
- G. How does the perceived relationship between social media usage and mental health vary across different user groups?